Newsletter Oct - Dec 2023

Hello Sanskriti wellwisher,

We wish you a very happy new year. Hope the year brings more success, peace and prosperity to you.

As we are entering a new year 2024, let's reflect back on the last quarter and last year. 2023 brought many moments wherein we reflect and realised that our efforts are making a huge difference on the ground. As we completed our mission 100 libraries, we started moving to mission 1000 libraries.

We are 16 years young as an organization and looking forward excitedly to the future. Sometimes it feels that the journey has just started. There is lot more to do. We are growing our library numbers every month and every quarter.

Please check the details of our last quarter libraries and activities updates in this newsletter. Please notice how kids are enjoying the books and the activities at our Dehradun center.

Let's all continue the journey of transformation in 2024.

Best Regards,
Joginder

In collaboration with AINA School of Holistic Education, Lakhimpur, Assam, we inaugurated a community library on November 14, 2023, during our Children's Day celebration—a milestone in our free libraries movement. AINA Foundation, committed to sustainable socio-economic upliftment, played a vital role, addressing underprivileged community needs, especially in education and gender equality. Active involvement with the tea tribe community children includes education and after-school classes.

Community libraries are acknowledged as potent catalysts for positive change, impacting education, preserving culture, and strengthening social bonds. This library not only promotes education but also nurtures a love for reading among children, fostering intellectual growth and community engagement. Heartfelt gratitude to AINA Foundation for invaluable support in our free libraries movement, aligning with the belief that education is fundamental for socio-economic development. The library's inauguration on Children's Day signifies a significant step toward building a more literate, educated, and empowered community.

“ Sanskriti Library # 117

प्राथमिक विद्यालय, दरगाहपुर नं.-1

A new chapter unfolds in our free library movement with the inauguration of a library in the Primary and Secondary schools of Darghapur, District Shamli, Uttar Pradesh, showcasing our commitment to accessible literature and learning for young minds. We enriched the reading experience by donating story books in Hindi and English, fostering a love for reading in multiple languages. A drawing competition added creativity and fun, contributing to holistic development.

Special thanks to Mr. Vipin Choudhray, a dedicated Sanskriti volunteer, for his invaluable assistance. Every library, regardless of size, promises a better future. Let's be the change we wish to see, making a lasting impact and inspiring a lifelong love for learning.

Sanskriti Library # 118

Delighted to announce a new library in the Primary and Upper Primary School Laprana, Block - Unn, District Shamli, UP, as part of our free library movement. Donated story books in Hindi and English to enhance education and enjoyment. Organized a drawing competition for added fun and creativity. Each new library represents a beacon of hope, illuminating the path to a brighter future. These libraries not only provide access to books but also symbolize a commitment to empowering communities through knowledge.

This library was also opened with the support from Mr. Vipin Choudhray.

Sanskriti Library # 119

We established a new library at a relief camp in Imphal East, Manipur, as part of our free library movement, providing education, entertainment, and distraction during challenging times. The library serves as a source of knowledge and a means of entertainment, offering individuals access to books, magazines, and educational resources. Promoting the reading culture, we believe in the transformative power of books to expand horizons and provide a pathway to new possibilities.

Each library added represents a step towards positive change and empowerment. Let's actively promote the reading culture and be the change we wish to see in the world, creating a more literate world one library at a time.

Sanskriti Library # 120

We are delighted to announce a new library collaboration with "Maika" Sweet Home, New Delhi—an orphanage for girls. The library serves as a valuable resource, enriching education and providing entertainment. Believing in literature's transformative power, we contribute to the well-being and growth of the girls. Access to books empowers positive growth and education, offering a gateway to knowledge.

In our commitment to be the change, let's recognize the power that books hold in shaping lives. By providing access to literature, we empower individuals to dream, learn, and grow. Let's give the girls at "Maika" Sweet Home more power with books, unlocking the doors to endless possibilities.

In the spirit of empowerment and education, let's embark on this journey of positive change, one book at a time. Let's Be The Change!

Diwali and Children's Day celebrations

This year, the center was adorned with double festivities as we celebrated both Diwali and Children's Day together, given their close proximity. The children engaged in creative expressions, making the center come alive with the vibrant colors of rangolis. The younger ones, brimming with enthusiasm, showcased their artistic talents through beautiful drawings that depicted the essence and spirit of Diwali.

The drawings not only reflected the children's artistic skills but also captured the essence of Diwali in their imaginative and heartfelt creations. Each stroke of the pencil or crayon became a canvas for their expressions of joy, light, and celebration.

The festivities continued with a delightful party at the center, featuring a spread of snacks that added to the festive cheer. The amalgamation of Diwali and Children's Day brought a double delight for the kids, creating an unforgettable memory of joy, togetherness, and cultural celebration. The center transformed into a haven of merriment, with the children at the heart of the festivities.

In reflecting on the Diwali and Children's Day celebration, we express heartfelt gratitude for the little moments that make the center a place of joy, creativity, and shared happiness. These celebrations become threads that weave a tapestry of love and memories for the children. The festivities not only provided a break from routine but also fostered a sense of community and belonging. May the spirit of Diwali and Children's Day linger in the hearts of the children, bringing brightness and warmth to their days ahead.

If you resonate with our vision of making knowledge accessible to all through our free library initiative, we invite you to join hands in bringing this dream to life. Your support can take various forms - whether through a financial contribution, donating books, or offering your time and expertise.

Every donation, big or small, plays a crucial role in creating a positive impact in our community. Your generosity will help us expand our library, reach more individuals, and foster a culture of reading and learning.

Together, we can make a difference in the lives of many through the power of knowledge.
