

Being the change for 15 years now and I feel that there is so much more to do. It's just the beginning. Sanskriti has come a long way. From one library at home to 90+ libraries across the country. Recently, SDG Goalkeeper award came as a great recognition to the efforts of more than a decade. We are close to completing our 100 libraries and now the next mission would be to open 1000 libraries across India.

Last 3 months have been overwhelming as we are growing with our work in all possible areas to make a difference. Bigger vision and dreams need bigger teams. So we are expanding - the idea is to have sustainable impact on the ground wherein we can make a bigger difference in society and become an integral and important part of societal transformation in India.

The new Sanskriti is coming into existence with bigger dreams - we are building up more libraries, working on creating a core team to take everything forward in a better way. Growth is a continuous process. Every book, every child, and every library - we are going one by one to go the next level of transformation.

We are sharing the updates of last 3 months through this newsletter. Please go through the newsletter and share your thoughts, ideas, and suggestions. Thank you for being a well-wisher for Sanskriti. In the coming times, we need your support more than ever so let's continue being the change.

Best,
Jogi

Our New Libraries Library 92

Moving forward to our mission 100 libraries we opened the library in collaboration with Building Dreams Foundation in Dehradun, Uttarakhand. The organization promotes social development of disadvantage children and communities. A drawing competition along with a career guidance session was held there.

Library 93

Library# 93 - We opened our next library with Fernweh Fair Travel - Lingro - Himalayan River Permaculture Farm in Chamoli, Uttarakhand. Fernweh is a women led organization developing rural tourism in remote villages of Uttarakhand. The organization also works on- educational, environmental, empowerment and fair trade Grass root Projects.

Library 94

Our next library was opened in Government Primary School in Barlowganj, Mussorie, Uttarakhand. Stationary was also distributed along with the books here. A drawing competition was held there. Kids were excited and some even recited their rhymes and told stories.

Our Book Donation Heroes

Cynoteck Donation Drive - 27th May - 4th June

In our free library movement, individuals and corporates supports us immensely. This time we got the support from Cynoteck Technology Solutions Pvt. Ltd. Dehradun. Cynoteck organized a book donation drive for Sanskriti. All kinds of books - stories (both English and Hindi), school syllabus, general knowledge along with the stationary items for children were collected. Our gratitude and thanks to all Cynoteck team for the support.

Ms. Ravindra Bhamra from Pune donated close to 30 books. She is a senior executive in a Financial firm based out of Pune. The books belong to her 8 year old Reyansh. Books are ideal for someone who has just begun to learn English. It is a very interesting collection. Thank you Ravindra and Reyansh.

Mrs. Pandhi, a resident of Dehradun donated 300 books to Sanskriti. She is working with the Supreme Court on environment issues. It is a vast collection of books from novels to educational books. She appreciated the work we do in Sanskriti. Our heartfelt thanks to Mrs. Pandhi for supporting us in our free library movement.

Ms. Anshula Kalra donated close to 25 books. She is a Dehradun resident now based out of Singapore. The collection is a mix of engineering books and a few fiction novels. We thank her for her contribution to Sanskriti.

10th June - SDG Goalkeeper award Historical moment for us!!

Sanskriti's founder Mr. Joginder Rohilla was awarded the SDG Goalkeepers honour by the Chief Minister of Uttarakhand Sh. Pushkar Singh Dhami. The award ceremony was organised by Centre for Public Policy and Good Governance (CPPG) Uttarakhand to acknowledge the contribution of the individuals towards the achievement of Sustainable Development Goals. We have opened more than 30 libraries in Uttarakhand which are impacting thousands of children by providing good reading space and better quality books.

Collaboration with AAPNA INFOTECH, Gurugram

AAPNA Infotech is a leading provider of software development solutions. AAPNA and Sanskriti formed a strategic partnership to make a difference in the society. Detailed discussions happened to work on various fronts to engage AAPNA team in Sanskriti's initiatives. We are looking forward to a great partnership with AAPNA to work together to make bigger and better impact on ground. Our sincere thanks and gratitude to the whole AAPNA team.
